Countable and Uncountable Nouns

There are two kinds of nouns in English; countable (C) and uncountable (U).

Countable Nouns (C) are the nouns that we can count.

➤ They have singular and plural forms.

one lemon

two lemons

one child

five children

➤ We use a / an with countable nouns in the singular.

➤ We use some / any with countable nouns in the plural.

a carrot

some carrots

an orange

some oranges

Countable and Uncountable Nouns

Uncountable Nouns (U) are the nouns that we cannot count.

➤ They have only singular forms.

bread ~~two breads~~

milk ~~five milks~~

➤ We don't use a / an or one with uncountable nouns.

salt ~~a salt~~

meat ~~one meat~~

➤ We can use some / any with uncountable nouns.

some money

some milk

some soup

4. He made chicken for his main course.
5. Liz made pasta for her main course.
6. The presenter says the pasta needs more salt and pepper.

Who is the winner?

The winner is Jack.

Listening:1

Presenter Good afternoon and welcome to today's edition of Get Ready! Cook! And a big round of applause for today's contestants, Jack and Liz. Hello Jack - so, do you like cooking?

Jack I love it. I cook dinner every evening at home.

Presenter How about you Liz?

Liz Yes, I'm the cook in my family too. I cook every day of course, but what I really like is cooking for friends at the weekend.

Presenter OK so, you know the rules. In the bag there are six ingredients, just six ingredients. You have an hour to cook three dishes, a starter, a main course, and a dessert. Apart from the ingredients in the bag you can also use basic ingredients like pasta, rice, eggs, sugar, salt, pepper, etc. OK. Are you ready? Let's open the bag. And today's ingredients are... a chicken, some carrots, some onions, three oranges, some cream cheese, and some dark chocolate.

OK, Jack and Liz. You have five minutes to decide what to make and then it's Get ready! Cook!

Listening:2

Presenter Right Jack, let's try your soup. Mm, that's delicious. It's a great combination, carrot and orange. Is there any onion in the soup?

Jack Yes, one onion.

Presenter It's very good, but next time maybe you could add a little cream, not much, just a little. OK, now the chicken. Mm. That's lovely. Not very original, but very tasty. And finally, the pancakes. They look beautiful... and they taste fantastic.

Now Liz, let's try your dishes. The salad first. Mm. It's nice, but the taste of onion is very strong. How many onions did you use?

Liz Three.

Presenter I think perhaps two are enough for this salad. OK, the pasta. Mm, it's very good, but it needs a bit more salt and pepper. And finally, the mousse. That's a beautiful mousse, Liz.

Liz Thank you.

Presenter Mm, and it tastes fantastic, absolutely delicious. Well congratulations to you both. I loved all your dishes – but only one of you can win - and today's winner is... Jack.
